In attendance were:

CLC Update from Jon

Funds are available for rain gardens. This would include systems around Long Lake that have been on hold and around town; where ponds and streams would benefit. Planning rain garden installations will take place over the winter, with the intention of spring installations. There was also some discussion about rain barrels at the CLC meeting last Tuesday.

Seminar at NEF

The group was reminded about the invasive species seminar this Saturday at NEF.

Dog Baggy Dispenser

The dog baggy dispenser is on order, along with extra bags. The cost of the order was 133.95. We'll most likely install a 4X4 post to mount the dispenser.

Missing Bench Plaque

There was some discussion about the missing bench plaque. Maybe the LLNA replace the plaque in the spring.

Fall Clean Up

The clean up is scheduled for 10AM on Sunday October the 14th. We'll trim the growth along the walkway and clean the area. If the dog baggy dispenser has been received before then, we'll do the installation that morning.

Hockey Tickets

Twenty Lowell Devil hockey ticket vouchers will soon be purchased. Steve has selected three games and will send an e-mail with the choices. Everyone's invited.

Annual Meeting - November

The annual LLNA meeting is next month, Friday November 9th at 7:00PM. The main topic of this meeting will be the bi-annual elections. Nominations will be accepted on or before October 19th.

Theresa will be once again be hosting the meeting at her place, immediately followed by a pot luck dinner. Theresa will be organizing the event.

E-Mail Etiquette

There was some discussion about the amount of e-mail volume on the LLNA groups e-mail site. There has been a fair amount of unnecessary dialog, commentary and editorials posted on the site. Please limit your transmissions on the LLNA groups e-mail site to LLNA and neighborhood issues and news. If you have an interest in having a discussion with an individual, you should call or e-mail them directly.
